Winterim Disclosure: Catan 101

Mrs. Jovel
Room 35
rjovel@apamail.org

Course Description: This course will explore the strategic board game Settlers of Catan. We will learn the basics of game theory and explore different expansions as well as learning the different strategies to navigate the game into victory.

We will also learn to play other similar strategy games included but not limited to Dominion, Risk, Azul, Chess and Ticket to Ride.

In addition, the student will be able to win some Catan and games related prizes!

Course Fee: The $15 participation fee will provide necessary materials for the students to play the games and also be able to have some snacks (provided during some games days), and will cover the items needed for the prizes.

If your student is able to bring any of the mentioned games, feel free to, they will be taken care of, and returned after the course.

By signing the following:

- Students agree to play fairly, treat other players with respect and treat the games carefully (if any games are misused, damaged or lost, the student will be responsible for replacing the game).
- Parent/guardian agrees to the student able to participate in the mentioned games and activities
