

My Fair Lady

January 2024- 3rd hour

Lady K. Mahoney is most excited and requests the honor of your presence for a class of the lost art of everything lady like. Her love of fashion will guide you through different eras of the history of clothes, hats, and shoes. You will learn Afternoon Tea Etiquette, the basics of embroidery, and Regency era line dances and so much more. All things on how to act and look like an elegant and classy Lady! For instance, did you know that it is actually considered taboo and a lack of manners to raise your pinky when drinking from your tea cup? Etiquette, manners, posture, well groomed, kindness, intelligence, patience, self-respect, and politeness are a must for a lady.

Ladies of the house (class) will be giBed with a few lovely lady-like accouterments including a light Afternoon Tea. If you have any allergies, please state it below or email Mrs. Mahoney.

We will be watching movies and clips from movies such as My Fair Lady, Sense and Sensibility, Hello Dolly, Somewhere in Time, Cinderella, and Sound of Music. All with a PG or G rating. If any concern, do reach out.

If you have any quesEons please email kmahoney@apamail.org
